GOOD THINGS BEAT FAVORITES AT DELMAR

Monograph and Judge Pettus Landed First at Very Handsome Odds and in Very Easy Style.

DAN PAXTON'S GOOD RACE.

Mr. Dearing's Fast Horse Beat Belle Simpson Over a Mile and One-Sixteenth-Watson's Bad Ride Defeated Meddlesome.

Two or three nice "drop-ins," as unexpected winners are called on a race track, upset hot favorites and won races at Delmar Park yesterday. Tom Hayes put a very handsome one through in Monograph, a fast coit, owned by his brother, William Hayes. Monograph was 5 to 1. Tickful was a favorite at 1 to 2, though the Fizer horse has not shown a really good race or decent form this season. Monograph proved himself a corker. He won all the way, a mile and twenty yards, in 1:44—excellent time, considering that he was eased up to a walk at sidering that he was eased up to a walk at the end. Tickful was a distant second. Monograph was well-played all over the ring. The Hayes party did quite a nice business on him.

It was an exceptionally good day for T.

M. Hayes. He won the first and fourth races with his colts Crimean and Kasan and the second with his brother's colt Monograph. He backed all three of them heavliy and got as good as 5 to 1 against the last two. O'Neill rode all three horses.

Monograph's mile and twenty yards in 1:44, galloping, was a notable performance. It was his second start, his maiden effort being against Eddie Jones and Trinity Belle in the mud at Washington Park.

On that occasion Charley Gates and John Drake backed him for a killing, but he does not like mud and he was up against the real thing.

On that occasion Charley Gates and John Drake backed him for a killing, but he does not like mud and he was up against the real thing.

News from Chicago last night was to the effect that a killing had been made on the horse in the poolrooms up there.

Jim O'Leary, who is Mr. "Western Jockey Ciub" Condon's partner, yelled murder last night because his poolroom was beaten by backers of the horse. Every "time Mr. O'Leary's room gets beaten by a horse running on a Turf Congress track, he cries that the race was a job put up on him by the track owners who backed the horse. He was crying that way last night. Undoubtedly, the Hayes party was busy with the good thing in the soft spot, for they certainly bet on him in St. Louis. And maybe Messrs. Gates and Drake were getting "theirs" back in Chicago, also. Poor Jim O'Leary!

Hobinson Bros., who own the good horse Northern Spy, also tossed a good one in a soft spot when they put Judge Pettus over in the third race. There was a hot tip out that this horse—who was making his maiden start of the season—had beaten Northern Spy is his work. It was a cinch that if he did this he could win where he was. So he was backed a good deal. Hindoonet, with Bloss up, was played as if he was "in" at 2 to 1, while Pettus went from is to 7s. Pettus at once raced to the front and galloped home an easy winner. Hindoonet ran a had race, but just where he belonged. Old Benham got up at the end in a hurry, but never could get close enough to worry Judge Pettus. Mona B. was a good third.

Dan Paxton's Good Performance.

In the distance handicap Belle Simpson was backed to beat Dan Paxton. She ran her race, but Paxton made the first part of it too fast and had a lot left to run with in the stretch. Simpson was perfectly ridden by O'Neill, kept well in it all the way, and brought up with good will at the right time, but never could quite get up. Battiste, a small negro boy, rode Paxton and handled him well. The horse had a world of speed and stuck it out like a major. The race proved that Belle S a mile, it was a cinchithat he would stick it out.

Watson's Careless Riding.

When they straightened out for home Meddlesome seemed to be romping. Watson firesaid of coming along with him sat down and began to jest O'Neill, who was riding Kazan for dear life. O'Neill laughed last. Meddlesome essed up before Watson knew it. Forty yards from the wire O'Neill brought Kazan up with a rush. Watson then went for his hat, let go his horse's head and lost Kazan won by a long head from Meddlesome, who was a head in front of Northern Spy, who, in turn, beat Grantor a head. It was a bad ride for Watson. He should have won easily. Northern Spy ran right to a hair. Both he and Grantor like a longer route.

A wretched ride by Lindsey lost Inving Mayor the last race, and let it go to Swordsman, who was elegantly handled by O'Brien. Lindsey let Mayor fall out of it early, though he is a good beginner, took him the long way even when he had five clear lengths between him and the field, brought him around a massed field on the stretch turn, messed him in the finish, yet only lost by a head. As a really had ride it was a masterpiece. All Lindsey had to de was to go with Swordsmar, who was his companion in the rear for the first half of the journey.

Tom Hayen's good colt, Crimean, walked home in the first race. It was a soft spot for him.

MURPHY SAYS KINLOCH WILL OPEN Well-Known Judge Sets August 17 for Inaugural-Engages Starters.

REPURILC SPECIAL.
Chicago, Aug. 5.—As a result of the Western Jockey Club's meeting here to-day it seems quite certain that there will be a turf war in St. Louis. Kinioch Park is to open August 17 in opposition to the Delmar track.

open August I7 in opposition to the Deimar track.

Joseph A. Murphy, who has been judge at the Fair Grounds, St. Louis, for a long time, is in the city. He came here to engage Starters Dwyer and Holtman for the meeting at Kinloch. Both men agreed to act at the Missouri course, alternating between Chicago and St. Louis, as they are now doing between Chicago and the Windsor track. "We have come before the Jockey Club for the dates given, and we are going to race." said Murphy to-night.

"There will be opposition, I suppose, but we will go along about our business with the best officials that are to be obtained, and as the Kinloch track is supported by powerful men, I think we will get along." Mr. Murphy would not say to-night who the other officials are to be.

Joseph D. Lucas, president of the Kinloch Park Racing Association, said last night that Mr. Murphy alone was authorised to make announcements of opening or anything else pertaining to the Kinloch track.

"I will say, however," sais Mr. Lucas, "that, tiring of trying to come to an amicable understanding with the Delmar people, we have resolved to go ahead and run at any cost. We tried to get them to split dates with us, but they refused to do so. A turf war is bad, but we must get use for cur ir vestment."

"This spring," said Manager Adler of Delmar Park, "the Fair Grounds people organized the Western Jockey Club to keep Delmar from being built. We then asked the Kinloch people not to take sides with or against us, simply to keep out of it. We offered to give them a bond, assuring them recompense for all possible losses if they did this.

"We did not want their help. We simply offered to give them a bond, assuring them recompense for all possible losses if they did this.

"We did not want their help. We simply oid not want them to side against us. We offered them dates. But they did side against us. As a result of their action we ware compelled to spend $500,000 to buy the Fair Grounda, which we did not want and which we would not have had to buy had not Kinloch sided against us. After we beat the Fair Grounds and the Jockey Club, at a great cost, forced upon us by Kinloch, that track sent representatives to us, asking for the same considerations we offered them to remain neutral in the early fight.

"Under the direumstances we could not see why we should be wise to forfeit privileges we paid $500,000 to acquire, much regairst our will and directly because of Kinloch's action. Hence we refused to enter any deal with the track. We deplore the imminent fight. We did not force it or seek it, but we will not avoid it."

eighty-five pencilers laid the edds, and, as a majority of the events went to well-played horses, the layers of oids suffered.

The features of the day's racing was the 3.00 Flash Stake for 2-year-oids and 50,000 Saratoga Handicap with a field of eleven of the best handicap horses in training, including the old black mare, Imp. The race was won by Rockton, who, at 10 to 1 in the betting, led from start to finish, and won easily by two lengths from Water Cure, who beat the 2-to-1 favorite. Water Color, a scant half length, Imp finished fifth, after being third for most of the journey.

SECTION OF SKULL REMOVED. Accident to Thomas Keegan Makes Operation Necessary.

Doctor H. L. Niciert, superintendent of the City Hospital, yesterday removed a section three inches square from the skull of Thomas Keegan, 48 years old, of No. 1025 North Second street.

Keegan fell down the rear stairs leading to his home yesterday morning. He was picked up unconscious and sent to the City Hospital. He was at first thought to be suffering from paralysis, but examination showed that the primary cause of his condition was an extensive fracture on the right side of the head. The skull had been caved in us if it were an egg shell, and the splinters had cut the gray matter of the brain, Keegan was still living last night.

The final results have not yet been given out, but the defenders are known to have lost a dozen cruisers, two gunboats and eight torpedo boat destroyers. The enemy loat only three cruisers, three torpedo boat destroyers and three torpedo boats, while they captured an endiess number of merchantmen.

Theresult is taken to be a practical confirmation of the justness of the criticism to which the admirality has recently been unit.
